TEACHING EXCELLENCE FRAMEWORK:

QUALITY, ACCESSIBILITY
AND STUDENT CHOICE

TUESDAY 11TH JULY 2017
THE STUDIO, MANCHESTER

EVENT OVERVIEW

The Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF) is changing the Higher Education landscape by incentivising excellence in teaching and from September 2017 helping students choose where to study.

Join us at Teaching Excellence Framework: Quality, Accessibility and Student Choice to learn about the very latest initiatives across current higher education policy; hear from universities leading the predicted lists of the UK government's teaching excellence framework (TEF) assessment; and discover and debate the reforms that the second trial year will implement on the higher education landscape.

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Janice Kay, Deputy Vice-Chancellor at the University of Exeter & Deputy Chair of the Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF) panel

Dr Jekaterina Rogaten, Research Associate in Learning Analytics, Open University

Amatey Doku, President, University of Cambridge Students' Union and Vice President (Higher Education), National Union of Students

Eric Bohms, Managing Director & Student Experience Advocate, Electric Paper UK

Professor Helen Higson, Provost and Deputy Vice Chancellor, Aston University

Professor Andy Collop, Deputy Vice-Chancellor, De Montfort University and more confirmed to present.
