Allyson Kay, Director – East of England & London, Consensus Support

About Consensus

- We are an accredited, nationally recognised independent provider meeting the bespoke needs of individuals with learning disabilities, autism and complex needs.
- We deliver community based services nationally to over 600 people.
- We pride ourselves on the quality we deliver and our relationships with the individuals we support, their families and local commissioners.

Our values

Our values and ethos ensure we deliver support services that help the individuals we support to do amazing things, every day.

Ensuring a bright future for the people we support

Supporting people in the right setting at the right time

Shaping young people's lives for the future

- Any young person's needs and outlook from aged 13 to 18 are unique to them
- How they see the world; their expectations, relationships, education, outlook
- That's no different for a young person with learning disabilities and complex needs

Our support is about setting them on the right path, opening up possibilities and opportunities, ensuring their learning disability doesn't "define" them as they go through life.

Support which flexes as young people develop

- | | | | |
|---|--|---|--|
|  | Understanding their past |  | Helping them understand boundaries and consequences |
|  | Understanding emotional and behavioural triggers |  | Helping them maintain relationships with family |
|  | Ensuring environmental and sensory needs are met |  | Building confidence and independence |
|  | Ensuring compatibility with other young people |  | Leading a fulfilling, meaningful life in their local community | consensus...

A young person's emotional displays need to be approached with...

- Consistency
- Empathy
- Structure
- An understanding of triggers
- Regulation

WE BELIEVE THAT COMPLEX BEHAVIOUR
DOES NOT NEED TO
